Radstädter Krippenweg

The romantic Nativity Scene Trail, through the town centre and around the historic town wall, is showing a new side this Advent. The route has been changed so that even more small works of art can be exhibited. An atmospheric walk awaits those interested, on which over 20 nativity scenes by carvers from Radstadt and the region can be admired in illuminated display windows and showcases. This year's start is at the tourist office in Schernbergstraße.
